Fund Performance Review & Market Commentary

The Aeon Active Equity Fund underperformed its benchmark by 100 bps for the first quarter of 2021 and is underperforming its benchmark by 62 bps over a one-year period.

Overweight positions in Impala Platinum and BHP were the main positive contributors to return for the first quarter of 2021. Underweight positions in Naspers and Anglo American Platinum were the main detractors. The benchmark equity index was up 13.28% for the first quarter of 2021.

The first quarter of the new year saw global emerging equity markets strongly positive, following positive sentiment over the rollout of vaccines in multiple countries. Despite the continued increase in the number of global Covid-19 cases and the associated lockdowns, market participants are seeing through this, and are now more optimistic about the recovery of the world's economy as vaccine deployment and acceptance continues to improve. Markets were further buoyed by US President Joe Biden's $2.25 trillion stimulus package, which was passed by members of the House of Congress. On the negative side, new 'strains' of the virus have been detected increasing potential unknowns about the virus and its effects over the months and years to come. Due to the expectation of a potential quicker than expected economic recovery, and rising inflation concerns, long-term bond yields started to move higher with 10-year yields hitting a high of 1.75%, causing investors to re-examine equity valuations. Fed chair Powell's comments to the Senate on the Fed's inflation expectations is that the relief package will not pose an inflation risk and that inflation is only expected to reach the Fed's target in about three years. The situation remains fluid and market volatility is expected to remain. The sector that fared best for the quarter ended March was General Retailers led by Woolworths, Foschini and Truworths. Banks was the weakest sector for the quarter, led by Standard Bank and Capitec.

Globally, central banks and governments have continued to be accommodative as a reactionary measure to tackle the pandemic. Treasury Secretary Yellen reiterated the importance of prioritising big stimulus action and fighting the pandemic. This is positive for business and markets. Numerous countries have shared similar sentiment to safeguard and stimulate their economies. An already low interest rate environment has left authorities with limited intervention capabilities. The Fed announced that it will be targeting average inflation of 2% going forward meaning that US interest rates could remain lower for longer. Furthermore, the US jobs report came in above expectations, while the unemployment rate decreased to 6% in March. Investors are finding this news flow positive for trade which should bode well for business and company earnings expectations in the months ahead. However, business uncertainty and poor forecast visibility will remain until vaccinations are rolled out, and sporadic lockdown restrictions have ended.

Locally, the domestic environment took cues from global markets with global Dollar weakness benefiting local industries such as Resources. Local sentiment has continued to be negative as the country faces economic growth obstacles. SA's unemployment came in above consensus forecasts at a record 32.5% in the fourth quarter of 2020. Treasury now expects debt to stabilise at 89% of GDP in the 2025/26 financial year while 2021's GDP growth is forecasted at 3.3%. Both Fitch and Moody's stated that they still think that it will be very difficult for government to meet its debt consolidation targets, especially once the risk of SOE debt is considered. South Africa's fiscal position remains constrained through poor policy decisions, and ineffective implementation by government. Financial conditions may be difficult for South Africa in the years ahead with consumer spend also muted. The pandemic remains a key focus with state funds allocated to the purchase and distribution of vaccines. This is an important task for government and all eyes will be on the implementation rollout.

Looking forward, growth expectations for the local economy seem to be dependent on a strong recovery in global growth, improving confidence, positive local government action, and Covid-19 containment measures. Astute stock picking with our Growth at Reasonable Price (GARP) philosophy that delivers superior value through the cycle and a focus on companies whose cash flows support earnings is expected to stand us in good stead moving forward.
